Paris Piano Trio

Regis Pasquier, violin
Roland Pidoux, cello
Jean-Claude Pennetier, piano

Alliance Française de Tulsa offers you a complimentary invitation for an educational performance of the PARIS PIANO TRIO on Friday, February 19, 6:00-6:45pm followed by a Question-Answer period in French and in English.

These three great French soloists have been connected by their love of chamber music since they were students together at the National Conservatory of Music in Paris. They offer us this personal opportunity to discuss the music with them prior to their full performance for the Chamber Music Tulsa.

The concert, which will be held on the University of Tulsa campus in the Tyrrell Hall Auditorium, is free and open to the public. 800 South Tucker Drive CAMPUS MAP, near the new TU entrance off of 11th and Delaware.

Simply reserve your seat rsvp@aftulsa.org or (918) 625-8376. Seating is limited. Reserve early.

With special thanks for these arrangements: Chamber Music Tulsa, The University of Tulsa School of Music and Barthelmes Conservatory

NOUS SOMMES TOUS HAITIENS

Notre petit pays frère francophone a besoin de nous...

On Friday February 19, 2010 Living Arts of Tulsa will host a Caribbean Salsa night to benefit the people of Haiti who were devastated by the recent earthquake on January 12th, 2010. There will be a clothing drive, a silent art auction, and raffle door prizes.

All proceeds will be donated to the Haitian Aid Relief.

The purpose of this fundraiser is to collect the following items: clothes, shoes, toothbrush, toothpaste, and other non perishable sanitation supplies for women, men and children of Haiti. The money raised will be used for shipping cost and purchase of medical supplies for the Haitian Aid Relief.

Location: Living Arts of Tulsa, 307 E. Brady (downtown Tulsa).

Date: Friday, February 19, 2010

Time: 6:30 - 8:00pm

Family and friends clothes drop off + Live performance

8:00pm - Midnight

Art auction, door prizes, Carribean/Latin music, food, dessert, and cash bar

Thank you dear friends for considering to help the people of my country - HAITI!

Sincerely,

Marjorie "Gigi" Bontemps 918-289-9447

HOST OPPORTUNITY FOR BUSINESS INTERN

Would you like to host this 23-year old intern, Jean-Baptiste Bidegain, who will arrive on March 22nd and will stay until May 10th, 2010. Because of his visa, he will leave and then he will return again on June 1st and stay until July 31st, 2010 to complete his internship with a digital ad agency in downtown Tulsa. Please express your interest to be a host family for a couple weeks, a couple months or for his entire stay and thank you in advance for considering this chance to welcome him into your home.

FRENCH CINÉ-CLUB:
"FAUBOURG 36"
Sunday, February 14, 5:00PM

Complimentary hors d'œuvres from Whole Foods and wine from Ranch Acres are provided by l'Alliance.

Complimentary admission is offered so you can share your enjoyment of the French language with fellow francophiles within the Circle Cinema Quad.

In March, Circle Cinema and l'Alliance Francaise de Tulsa will co-host our 2nd Annual Festival de Film in celebration of "mois de la francophonie."

Become a Volunteer for our Speaker Bureau!

Would you like to talk about the country of France with younger school age children during an afternoon in the week of February 22nd at Lake Country Christian School in Sand Springs? Topics requested for discussion are the age of French architecture, crêpes, daily routines of French children, literature and language.

Please email rsvp@aftulsa.org or call 918-625-8376.

Become a Volunteer for Kids World!

We hope to recruit francophiles who would like to help us plan our French booth for 4-5-6 November Tulsa Global Alliance "Kids World." We want to map places where Tintin travels in his books to match this year's "Global Odyssey" theme.

Please email rsvp@aftulsa.org or call 918-625-8376.

Since 1955, Alliance Française de Tulsa has been dedicated to promoting French language and culture programs in education and the arts.
