TCF (Test de Connaissance du Français)

L'Alliance Française de Tulsa is the only authorized test center in Oklahoma for the Test de Connaissance du Français (TCF). TCF is an international French proficiency test for non-native speakers of French, which is recognized in over 118 countries.

Do you want to:

➤ Study Abroad?

TCF is recognized by most French universities as meeting the French language requirements for entry.

➤ Get a better job or promotion?

The TCF certificate is an excellent benchmark of your French language abilities and can be used to endorse job applications and promotions.

➤ Gauge your progress in French?

Take TCF, an internationally recognized evaluation of your speaking, writing and comprehension skills in French.

The TCF test can be taken between 20th and the 30th of each month (special arrangements in August and September). Applications must be submitted and fees paid before the 5th of each month. The cost of the test is $250 (higher for optional components).

We can assess your readiness to take the TCF. The Alliance provides lessons and private tutorials to help you build the proficiency skills you need to succeed on the TCF.
